FOOD & DRINK

Chigger Ranch

801 E Blackjack St
254.445.4055

Feast on a big, juicy hamburger at the Chigger Ranch, but never on Sundays. It appears at first glance to be a rather well-used service station and convenience store and it is, but there is real food behind that façade.

Ha'Penny Di'nea'r (Diner)

103 W Live Oak Street
254.445.3470

The Ha'Penny Di'nea'r is named after the bridge in Dublin, Ireland and true to Irish custom, the proprietress will provide dessert for a half-penny more than the full cost of a meal. How does one pay a half-penny? Just try it and find out.

Hours: Tues - Fri 6:30am to 3:00pm

STUFF TO DO

Dr Pepper Bottling Plant & Doc's Café

105 East Elm
888.398.1024
www.dublindrpepper.com

You'll notice the art deco style plant immediately when you arrive in Dublin. It's a beauty and they still bottle "the original" formulation of Dr Pepper as they have for over 100 years in that plant. Even if you're not a fan of the sweet, bubbly beverage, it's an interesting stop. Plant tours available.

LODGING

The Patrick Street Inn

512 North Patrick Street
254.445.4922

Built around 1880, the inn has four suites for around $65 per night and serves a gourmet breakfast to its guests in the privacy of their rooms.

The Irishetta Bed and Breakfast

506 West Mesquite St
254.445.4565

The Irishetta is an Eastlake Home built in 1893. It has a wonderful front porch, three flower gardens and beautiful grounds. It's hard to beat the prices and small town, laid back atmosphere where a day seems like a day, instead of a blurred flash of existence.
